FROM THE Le MAHIEU's: Dear Cornerstone, Congratulations on being able to worship in your new building. We pray that the Lord will be praised greatly and that your new location will be a beacon of hope for Pella. We want to thank you for your faithful, recent gift to support our work in Papua New Guinea. Doug has taken on a few new classes in the Bible department this year due to teachers being on furlough. Please pray that the students of Ukarumpa International School will grow deeply in their faith. Benita continues her work in the literacy office, and Tia is enjoying her senior year. The latest strain of Covid has hit the Eastern Highlands Province where we live hard, and we know families who have recently lost members to Covid. We ask that God will have mercy on our community. - In Christ, Doug, Benita and Tia Le Mahieu
